Happy New Year!

It's hard to believe that January is over! We hope everyone is off to a great start in 2020. The studio has been pretty calm, but so much is about to kick in. Planning for our music recitals, dance revues, dance pictures and yearbook. We have fantastic workshops for both dance & music, and our opening and closing productions start in just a few weeks! There are upcoming holidays for Mardi Gras and Easter and two dance competitions in between.

So much is happening and you'll want to check your folders as well as check in at the desk. Don't forget to turn on notifications in Team App and follow us on Facebook and Instagram.

Dance Costumes!!!

Feb 1st - the 2nd payment is due. If you are on auto-pay, you are all set! If you are paying by check or cash, be sure to stop at the desk to avoid late fees.

Are you ready for the sparkle and glitter? Dance costumes are arriving daily and we will have almost all of them very soon. Costumes will begin distribution February 17. You will receive a class email the day before your class so you know when costumes are handed out.

- Your dance teacher will explain the parts of the costumes to parents at the end of dance class.
- Parents must come into the studio for this demonstration and to sign out costumes.
- At that point you should check for all pieces and let the desk know if something is missing.
- We have a very small window of time to contact the manufacturers for missing items.
- ONCE YOU LEAVE THE STUDIO, WE ARE NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR MISSING PIECES OR SOILED COSTUMES.

If we don't try them on in class, please try them on as soon as you get home. In most cases we size them larger to allow for growth. If you need minor alterations, we have someone that can do them for you, but please wait until we get closer to pictures to allow for growth. If you are unsure of the fit, bring it back to the studio the next week so we can take a look.

Also, stage tights are included with your revue fee. Please put these aside and only use them for pictures and revue. They are part of the costume and we require all students to have matching tights for stage.
